Liberal Paintings.

Mrs. T. A. Dean is this week making arrangements for the exhibit of several paintings at the Hutchinson state fair, to be held the last of this month. Mrs. Dean has painted most of the pictures she will send to the fair, since they have lived in Liberal. This is the first work of the kind done here, that has ever gone to Hutchinson, and her many friends hope to see her paintings carry off some of the prizes. Those who have seen the pictures say they are exceptionally fine, and they are very enthusiastic over Mrs. Dean's work. Liberal will again get into the limelight, being not only a center of industry for the southwest, but also noted for its works of art.
